REQUESTED OUTREACH TOPICS (check all that apply)

☐ Consumer Protection

Consumer protection covers a wide variety of topics affecting Delaware's consumers, including consumer frauds, deceptive trade practices, false advertising, online privacy, data breaches, telemarketing, home improvement fraud, debt management, and manufactured housing. This topic can also include an overview of the DOJ Consumer Protection Unit's authority and procedures.

☐ Senior Protection

Older adults are frequently targeted—by scammers over the phone, internet, and mail, and even by trusted caregivers. Senior Protection presentations focus on fraud and scams that target older adults and include tips for prevention, as well as advice on how to recover if you or a loved one is victimized.

☐ Identity Theft

Identity theft—when somebody uses your personal information to engagement in fraudulent activities such as opening accounts or filing false tax returns in your name—is one of the fastest growing areas of consumer crime in the country. Learn how to protect yourself and what to do if your personal identifying information is compromised.

☐ Online and Telephone Scams

Learn about common online and telephone scams and how to avoid them.

☐ Foreclosure Prevention

The Office of Foreclosure Prevention and Financial Education can help Delaware homeowners who are experiencing financial distress and facing foreclosure on their home.
